Introduction of the event:

On December 20, 2024, Vidya Vikas Arts, Commerce, and Science College, Samudrapur, observed the Death Anniversary of the revered social reformer, Sant Gadgebaba. The event was organized with a special focus on promoting the habit of cleanliness among the students, a core value championed by Sant Gadgebaba throughout his life. The program, held in the college auditorium hall, commenced with an introduction by Dr. V. M. Chandankhede, Head of the Department of History. He provided a brief yet insightful description of Sant Gadgebaba's life and his invaluable contributions to the community. The chief guest, Dr. Prakash Tale, delivered a thought-provoking speech emphasizing Sant Gadgebaba's philosophy of cleanliness as a vital component of both spiritual growth and societal progress. The event was chaired by Dr. Kishor Rewatkar, Principal of the college, who shared his reflections on the importance of incorporating Sant Gadgebaba's values into the institution's culture and encouraged students to lead by example in maintaining cleanliness. The program was anchored by Dr. Rajkumar Ramteke, who ensured the event proceeded smoothly with his engaging and articulate presentation skills. The program concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks presented by Dr. Sanjivani Patil. The observance served as a meaningful reminder of the timeless relevance of Sant Gadgebaba's teachings and inspired all attendees to embody his principles in their daily lives.
