Introduction of the Event:

The Department of Botany organized a tree plantation drive in our college campus before event necessary preparations for the plantation were arranged. The event commenced with a brief inauguration by Dr. N. S. Shirbhate, Vice-Principal & Head Department of Botany. emphasizing the significance of tree planting for a greener future. Students divided into groups, and actively planted varieties of native species including Bougainvillea, Kadam, Neem, Chafa, Pipal, etc. Post-plantation care instructions were provided by Dr. S. D. Yeotkar Co-Ordinator, Nature Club to ensure the sapling's survival. Water schedules and monitoring responsibilities were delegated to volunteers and campus gardeners. The tree plantation event at our college was resounding success, fostering a sense of responsibilities towards the environment among all participants.

Objectives of the Activity:

The tree plantation initiative at Vidya Vikas Arts, Commerce and Science College campus premises aimed to enhance environmental sustainability on campus, promote biodiversity, and raise awareness about the importance of trees in mitigating climate change.
